LB 1004

could you tell us the status of Mr. Greenholtz and just exactly what is going to happen with that particular appointment to that particular commission and if any action is going to be taken and if any action is not going to be taken, why?

SENATOR MARSH: Senator Venditte, our committee will be meeting this Wednesday. I have no way of responding to your question until after our meeting on Wednesday.

SENATOR VENDITTE: And the reason why I asked that particular question is because I understand that that is just going to remain in limbo and I'm wondering...

SENATOR MARSH: I am a little surprised that you would make that statement unless you have polled all thirteen members of the Committee on Committees, Senator Venditte.

SENATOR VENDITTE: Senator Marsh, I would not have made that particular comment had I not gotten that information from members of the committee but nevertheless, Mr. Speaker...

PRESIDENT: I am not going to permit an argument going on here about what is going to happen next Wednesday.

SENATOR VENDITTE: I will wait for the day of Wednesday, Mr. Speaker.

PRESIDENT: I think that would be wise.

SENATOR VENDITTE: Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT: All right, we will proceed then with General File. Mr. Clerk, I guess we will go with LB 1004.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 1004 was introduced by the Appropriations Committee and signed by its members. (Read LB 1004.) The bill was first read on March 27 of this year. It was referred directly to General File, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, this is the suggested language and intent bill from the Appropriations Committee for the appropriations bills. I will briefly go through it and there are two or three places that I will particularly identify that you may want to be aware of. First, language that affects the legislative council merely indicates the legislative fiscal office will continue to
